Descendants of Abraham SAMPSON

- Given name: In the 1850 Federal Census Lewis Work's wife is listed as "Elizabeth P." which is unlikely as, according to Hutchinson, Rufus Sampson had a daughter Elizabeth who married Horace Shaw. The Federal Census lists an "Elizabeth S." as the wife of Horace Shaw from 1860-1870, q.v. Thus, if Hutchinson is correct, "Emily P." is likely the correct name of the daughter of Rufus who married Lewsi Work. [SBCWJR]

1880: In the 1880 Federal Census, Elizabeth is not enumerated with husband Horace and son Edward M. in Boston. Horace and Edward M. are boarders and Horace is listed as "Married." The only Eliaabeth M. Shaw located in the area is a 50 year old born in ME, whose parents were born in ME, who is listed as "Insane" residing at the Lunatic Hospital in Suffolk Co., MA. - Age at Death: 54 yrs. 3 mos. 14 days. Married.

- Biographical: The Tampico Tornado was established in the centennial year, the first issue bearing date May 4, 1876. A.D. Hill and Charles F. Gifford were the publishers and proprietors. During the first year the paper was printed at Prophetstown. Mr. Gifford at the expiration of that time became sole proprietor, purchased an outfit and commenced its publication at Tampico. The paper met with good success from its commencement, securing a good paying list of subscribers and being well patronized by the business men of the place. While probably not being able to destroy with its breath like the physical manifestation of the tornado, it is yet a power in the community in which it exists, Mr. Gifford being a born newspaper man. (Transcribed from Portrait & Biographical Album of Whiteside County, 1885) He managed the newspaper until 1902. It continued until 31 Dec 1966. (<http://wside.k12.il.us/tes/tornado.html>)

7156 F i. Susan M. MONK was born circa 1846 in MA.

- Identity: Sarah M. Monk only appears in the 1850 Federal Census of Stoughton. Her age is listed as 4. A decade later the 1860 Census lists a Lorain M. Monk age 14 and no Sarah M. who would then be 14. The Vital Records of MA neither include the birth nor death of a Sarah M. during the 1850s. They also do not include the birth of Loring Morton Monk although he does appear in the Vital Records as marrying twice. He is given the age of 27 in 1875 and 48 in 1894. It would appear that there was no Sarah M. but that the 1850 enumerator misheard the given name of Loring. The enumerator in 1860, perhaps for the same reason, lists Loring as a male Lorain. - 7802 F iv. Elizabeth DECKER was born in 1894 in Plymouth, Plymouth Co., Massachusetts.
 - Identity: This daughter is only assumed for the following reasons: 1. The 1900 Census states that William and Arabella Decker had 5 children and 4 survived. 2. The spacing of the surviving children suggest taht there might have been a child born between Oct 1889 (daughter Annie's birth in MA) and mar 1896 (daughter Helen's birth in IL). A search of all Deckert births in MA for the period between those years yields only an Elizabeth born in Plymouth in 1894. Unfortunately the MA VR for Elizabeth do not have an image and thus the parents are not available. There is no death of an Elizabeth Decker listed in the MA VR for that period, however they had moved during that period to IL and the death may have occurred there.[SBCWJR]

George married Mabel Louella BAILEY, daughter of Unidentified BAILEY and Martha B. UNKNOWN, circa 1886. Mabel was born in Sep 1864 in ME.

Descendants of Abraham SAMPSON

- Parentage: Apparently Mabel L. Bailey was adopted by Augustus A. and Emma A. Bailey. Mabel is so listed in the 1880 New Gloucester, Cumberland Co., ME Census. In the 1900 New Gloucester Census the Haskills were living next door to George E. and Mabel L. Sparrow. In the 1910 Pittston, Kennebec Co., ME Census a Martha B. Crosby (b. ME, father b. England, mother b. unknown) is listed as a 66 widowed "mother-in-law" living with the George E. and Mabel L. Sparrow family. She is still so listed in the 1920 Census. In the 1900 Portland, ME Census there are a John and Martha Crosby (b. Oct 1844 in ME, father b. England, mother b. MA). Martha is listed as having had 5 children, all of whom were living. with a stepdaughter Jennie F. (b. Jan 1877). Quite likelu this Martha is the same one recorded as mother-in-law to George E. Sparrow and that she had been the wife of a Bailey by whom she had Jennie, Mabel L. and the other 3. A search of earlier Census has failed to provide further evidence.

FEARING* ⁴³⁶⁰, Henry FEARING ²¹³¹, Cynthia ROUSE ⁸⁵⁰, John ROUSE Jr. ²²⁸, Sarah SAMPSON ⁴¹, Abraham II ⁶, Abraham ¹) was born in Feb 1868 in Waterford, Washington Co., Ohio, died in 1957 at age 89, and was buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago, Cook Co., IL.

- Biographical: Caro Dana Dawes, née Blymyer, was the wife of Vice President of the United States Charles Dawes, who served from 1925 to 1929. Therefore, she was the Second Lady of the United States during that period. Caro Blymyer married Charles Dawes in 1889. They had two children and adopted two more. After the death of their son Rufus in 1912, the Daweses retreated from social life and instead devoted much of their energies to charity work. While serving as Second Lady of the United States, Dawes disappointed the social elite of Washington, DC because she declined many social invitations. Nonetheless, it was observed that her "manner was sweet and gentle, her conversation cultured, and her dignity unimpeachable." Dawes died in 1957 and is buried along with her husband in Rosehill Cemetery.

Caroline married Charles Gates DAWES, son of Brevet Brig. Gen. Rufus R. DAWES and Mary Beman GATES, on 24 Jan 1889. Charles was born on 27 Aug 1865 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio, died on 23 Apr 1951 in Evanston, Cook Co., Illinois at age 85, and was buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago, Cook Co., IL.
